Inspector General of Prisons in Mysore,

Bangalore.

Sir,

Adverting to your No.5812 dated 25th September 1902, desiring me to state the occasion necessitating the purchase of boots for Warders at Government cost, I have the honor to submit that the Warders have to walk about the Jail premises night and day; they have also to escort the outdoor gangs. They are always in uniform and as in the case of Police, they look only half dressed without boots. There is also the danger of their getting Plague going about without boots and bring infection into the Jail.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
